SUBJECT : RESUBMISSION OF RMS4020 RESEARCH PROJECT

Reference is made to the above captioned matter.

2. After carefully reviewing your research defence sessions, management has decided to offer you a second chance for the submission of your research projects. This opportunity is extended to ensure that all students can meet the high academic standards of the institute.
3. Corrections and Revisions: Your revised research projects must include all the corrections and improvements identified by your examiners during your defence sessions. Carefully review the feedback provided and ensure that all suggested changes are thoroughly implemented.
4. New Submission Deadline: The new deadline for submitting your revised research projects is Saturday, 22nd June 2024. Please adhere strictly to this deadline to ensure your project is evaluated on time.

Submitted for your information and appropriate action.
